ASSIGNMENT

Our office received this case assignment on January 25, 2010. We were requested to conduct 2 days of surveillance in order to determine the Claimant's current level of activity.

Thursday, March 4, 2010

- 1:00 pm Surveillance was begun in the vicinity of the Claimant's reported residence located at 2 N. Avena Avenue in Lodi. Upon arrival, the residence was dark inside, with closed blinds, no lights on and no activity. The Claimant's black Ford Mustang was parked behind the green Ford Focus. A secure surveillance position with the front of the residence and vehicles in view was established.
- 5:32 pm The Claimant emerged from the residence, and approached her vehicle. She reached about in the trunk, and soon carried an armload of unidentified items to the residence, and out of view. She was attired in dark sweat pants, and a dark sleeveless tee-shirt.
