RE: Special Districts and Prop 65

Dear Attorney General Harris:

I received and read your office's reply to my follow-up email of April 15, 2015. I asked a simple question: Did my ex-employer violate Proposition 65 when they sprayed Formalin from 2004 to 2010 and failed to ever advise me of such spraying?

What I received from your office was a form letter from a person by the name of Casey Hallinan. I searched the California Bar website just now, and unlike yourself, this particular Hallinan person is not one of the twelve active members of this state's bar with that surname. I'll therefore charitably conclude that this person is a college graduate, at best, and put his/her civics lesson on government structure aside for now.

Can you yourself please answer the question contained in my first paragraph?
Thank you for your considered reply.

Sincerely,
/S/
