

Subject: FW: Me, MaryJean & my mom

Date: Friday, June 3, 2016 at 3:49:08 AM Pacific Daylight Time

From: Tiffany Anderson

From: ronald ebel <ronaldebel20@yahoo.com>

Reply-To: ronald ebel <ronaldebel20@yahoo.com>

Date: Thursday, June 18, 2015 at 3:04 PM

To: Tiffany Anderson <tiffanyanderson@icloud.com>

Subject: Re: Me, MaryJean & my mom

Tif I don,t know what brought this on but i was there and don,t ever say I wasn,t the fact is mary had me in her will which i was never properly informed by mail and i will still expect that money if you still consider me your father then stop fighting with me for better or worse i am your father as far as jimmy is concerned i do not believe he is entitled to anything but if that was marys wish so be it.

LOVE
DAD

On Thursday, June 18, 2015 1:04 PM, Tiffany Anderson <tiffanyanderson@icloud.com> wrote:

Jimmy,

I do not know what your motives are. To me they seem to be transparent.

The last 5 months of MaryJena's life we needed help so bad. You were very clear in your writings to me. You did not want to get involved with mine and MaryJean's problems is what you said to me. MaryJean's problems were she needed a medical advocate. They tethered her to a chair, drugged her and said she was crazy. They (Arbor) took her physical therapy away from her, called her insane and sent the cops to the only place that was providing any advocacy to her. At this point in time my mother had a chance to live. I was taking her to UCSF on my dime not Mary's. If you would like to talk about honor you need to look at the whole picture and that is what an accounting will do. I know it would be easiest for you to get your money and never have to deal with me again. But you see those Christian principals we both confess to stand on "truth" that is what I will transpose and honor.

If you have any questions or concerns at this point you need to do it through Mr. Goehring's office at your expense.

I will retain the services of a CPA and I will be back billing for the years I paid rent while caring for both Shirley and MaryJean. I will be fully transparent with the accounting but I will not be bullied or pushed into the time constraints of another. I need to relocate and address my immediate needs and circumstances.

MaryJean died from blood blisters that were infected while she laid there neglected at that facility. If one truly cared about MaryJean and her well being things like this should have been addressed. Please leave me alone. I am dealing with the aftermath of something that was bigger than myself. I will be honest and transparent Jimmy but I too am in need of medical care. So I am my first priority. Where you go from here will make clear your intentions and your motives.

Sincerely,

Tiffany Anderson