Ms. Anderson,

Thank you for taking the time to meet with the San Joaquin County Grand Jury on August 16, 2011 at 1:30 p.m. Please come to the Grand Jury Room, #605, which is located on the 6th floor of the courthouse at 222 E. Weber Avenue, in Stockton. Please confirm receipt of this email. Thank you.

CONFIDENTIALITY NOTICE: Grand Jury proceedings are, by law, secret. You are admonished not to discuss the fact that you are to appear before the grand jury or the substance of your testimony with any person not a grand jury member. You are admonished not to reveal to any person, except as directed by the court, what questions were asked or what response were given during your appearance. Nor are you permitted to discuss, without court order, the nature or subject of the grand jury investigation. Violation of this admonition constitutes contempt of court and is punishable as such (Penal Code Section 166). (This does not prevent you from discussing this matter with your attorney who is advising you with respect to your appearance before the grand jury) In the event any person attempts to coerce or pressure you in an effort to gain information about this proceeding, please immediately contact the grand jury foreperson. There should be no admonishment, interference or reprimand for such appearance by your employer. If this is done please contact the Grand Jury immediately.
