Bob- In my world John and I could sit down and work out our differences. If that were the case we would not be where we are today. I just want everything to be ok. I am anxious, nervous and scared. I will continue to put my energy in working hard, keeping my mouth shut and patience. I will stop sending you emails. If you have any wisdom or advice prior to August 16th, I would love to hear it.

Sincerely,
Tiffany Anderson
