went to my chiropractor who gave me a few adjustments and punched my sinuses he also gave me a written excuse from work. When I gave it to my boss the day I requested one from you. He wasn't going to accept it because my said he wasn't a Dr. He also told me I would need a Dr's release. Then after I called Kaiser in a panic he changed his mind. I still am having bas sinus problems. Conjestion. Sore throat. Sneezing. Tension in my head and neck. I tried to schedule an appointment with you for monday the 10th but you are all full. I have that day off so I am going to call at 6 am to see if you have any cancelled appointments. So hope to see you. And sorry for the time wasted. Tiffany

Hi,
We been having a lot of problems with flu virus. I was also sick for 2 days last week.
You can call on Monday for an apt.
Mean while if you want to try i have sent a prescription for amoxicillin and decongestent to pharmacy 1. You can pick it up any time from now.
Dr.Jasti

Dr jasti I thank you for your time. I felt like I had the flu last week. The conclusion I came to after the third day I think I had a sinus infection. The drip down my throat was makink my stomach really queezy and the throbbing headache I had for three days was right up with the migraine cadigory. I went to my chiropractor who gave me a few adjustments and punched my sinuses he also gave me a written excuse from work. When I gave it to my
