Trudy,
I understand my perspective may not be the conclusion the grand jury comes to. I understand by submitting that complaint form I was asking for myself to be judges as well as those I accused of wrong doing. All Brian Heine would do is either confirm my perspective or deny any validity.

It is my firm belief that John Stroh had full intentions of firing me. I think I was a pawn in the war between management and Don Meidinger's comp case. I do not know

We don't have any plans to interview Morgan Benett at this time. What can Brian Hiene offer as testimony? He has not been intrviewed.

Thanks for the info.
