Dear Doctors Bronshvag and Tabaddor:

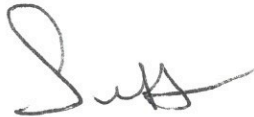

Enclosed please find some missing, relevant records for your consideration as you prepare your next QME report on my claims. Counsel for my employer has previously stated (see enclosed Proof of Service from October 25, 2011) that you (Dr. Tabaddor) were provided my "entire medical file to date", but that is simply not true. Enclosed are records that should have been maintained by my employer and sent to you by them or their counsel prior to today. Because my self-insured employer is obligated by law to maintain my complete medical records, I'm hereby asking them to provide all parties involved a complete set of my medical records; despite repeated requests, critical documents remain missing. Over the next few weeks, I will be sending you additional mailings with the records that I do have in my possession. Here is an index of the enclosed documents:

Description of Document	Period Covering	Number of Pages
Pre-Employment Exam Records	04/2004	4
Date of Injury	06/07/2004	20
Date of Injury	01/21/2005	17
Date of Injury	10/11/2005	44
Date of Injury	06/29/2011	18

Date of Injury	06/29/2011	2
Vitals	2004 – 2011	6
Summary of Kaiser Records	2005 – 2013	49
Treatments At Dameron per Timesheets	2004 – 2005	13

Your continued professional courtesies are appreciated in regards to these claims. Again, please take these additional records into your consideration when preparing your next QME report on my pending claims. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Tiffany Anderson
