

Mandy.

Do me a favor grab your cheek and pinch it as hard as you can. That's from me. I hope your drive was O.K.

Today I had a very busy day I started by dropping Ben off to school, seeing you off, then I made it to my work at, next I went to my nutrition class (where I had a big test) and psychology class. I want you to make sure you are enjoying yourself, but also remember to be an example of Jesus. I packed you some paper and a pen please take some time to write down a few things you've done each day so you'll remember and have something to share with us when you come home. I'm leaving you with a scripture please read it and say a prayer before you go to sleep. Remember that Dad Ben & I will be praying for you at home, and that we all love you very much.

P.S. see you in five days! Love Mom

Scripture

"Oh, that you would bless me and enlarge my territory!
Let your hand be with me,
and keep me from harm so that I will be free from pain."
and God granted his request.

The Prayer of Jabez

I Corinthians 13:4-8

Love is patient, love is kind.
It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud. It is not rude, it is not self seeking, it is not easily angered; it keeps no record of wrongs. Love does not delight in evil but rejoices with the truth. It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres. Love never fails. Meow.
