Dear Tiffany,

There is so much I want to say. I am grateful for the time we spent together . I was always happy being around you regardless of what happened in my day. You always put a smile on my face. The feeling of being happy was new to me. I know that I moved fast, but I couldn't help it. I am sorry if I made you feel uncomfortable. I am hoping that you love me as much as I love you. Then I know there would be a chance to be together again. These past days have been hell on me. All I can think about is you. You are a beautiful person inside and out. I know that you have issues and so do I, but I was willing to work them out with you. When you love somebody, that stuff doesn't matter. Like I said, I have liked you for a very long time. I know we only knew each other for a couple of months, but I thought we had a great bond for such a short period of time....nothing I have ever experienced before. You were truly an answer to my prayers and I know I can make you happy.....I've seen it on your face! I loved kissing you and holding you. I felt very sure of myself. You made me feel important and loved! I was truly hoping we could spend the rest of our lives together and grow old with each other. There was a lot of things that I was excited about, like going to Church, Disneyland, Wine Tasting, Christian Concerts, Movies, Dinners, etc..... especially cooking together and just hanging out. Working out was great too! I know that you said there's a lot of women out there, but I waited 25 years for you. It was definitely worth the wait. It might be selfish of me but I want you back. I love you and will always be there for you regardless of what happens. If it doesn't happen between you and Robert, I would be willing to take it slow and court you the correct way. I know you heard all these words before from me, but at least it is on paper now and that you will save this letter....I am hoping! If it works out that we are just good friends and you are happy with Robert then I will respect your judgement. I will always cherish and love you! You are truly beautiful!

Love,

Guy
