In response to your message.

I received word from Eddie today (4/14/14) that he is mailing me the requested information. As I need to review the information (as it is going to be provided to the QME and you did not want to have the expense of making a copy) I have asked Eddie to send the materials my way. I will be out of the office next week (week of 4/20) so if they get here by the early part of this week I will review the materials, have my office make copies and send them your way.
